Grand Knights Report

Brothers,

As members of the largest fraternal Catholic organization in the world we, as Brothers, must always show a unified front, no matter the event, program or cause. The Supreme Knight has called for the Knights of Columbus to be a "Light to the Nations". Live your faith out loud and in the open for the whole world to see. To assist you in your journey, Supreme Council has instituted "Building the Domestic Church". I urge you to visit the Supreme website at www.kofc.org and click on Building the Domestic Church to find out more.

We have several events and programs upcoming. Get involved! There's no better feeling than fulfilling our first and foremost principle of charity. Along the way, meet your brothers and their families. I look forward to working alongside all of you for the betterment of our church, our families, our council and our community.

Feel free to visit us on Facebook or Twitter, or visit our website at www.kofc14398.com for updates and a list of future programs and events.

Vivat Jesus

From The Chaplain

Excerpt from:

FAMILIES UNITED IN CHARITY

8/1/2016

Supreme Chaplain Archbishop
William E. Lori

AS DOMESTIC CHURCHES, OUR FAMILIES ARE CALLED TO REACH OUT BEYOND
THEMSELVES IN LOVING SERVICE

As we know, a parish is called to be a community of faith, worship and service. Pope Francis goes a step further and challenges parishes not to become “a useless structure out of touch with people or a self-absorbed group made up of a chosen few. ”Instead, the parish is to be known as “an environment for hearing God’s word, for growth in the Christian life, for dialogue, for proclamation, charitable outreach, and celebration”( Evangelii Gaudium, 28).

If the family is a domestic church, that is to say, “the Church in miniature,” then it must avoid the same pitfalls and exhibit the same virtues. Family members cannot allow themselves to withdraw from one another, from their extended families, or from the parish and the wider community. Pope Francis warns that “some Christian families, whether because of the language they use, the way they act or treat others, or their constant harping on the same two or three issues, end up being seen as remote and not really a part of the community”( Amoris Laetitia, 182). The family must create a loving environment where both parents and children hear God’s word, share it, talk about their joys and sorrows in light of it, and proclaim it by their lives of love and service to others.

Chaplain

FAMILY OF THE MONTH

Family of the Month for August

August Family of the Month goes to the Schaff family. Kyle and Rhonda were joined in matrimony this year on July 23rd. Kyle has been active with several of our events/functions and he regularly attends our monthly meetings. His new bride, Rhonda, is a stay at home mom to Cody and Lorinda and is a Girl Scout Troop Leader. Congratulations Kyle and Rhonda on your wedding.

Knight of the Month

Knight of the Month for August

This month’s Knight of the Month is Jerry Weakley. Brother Jerry has been instrumental in many of our programs, from fish fries to membership. Notably Jerry has been the breakfast chairman for our council for the past few years, which has had an increase in attendance over the years due to his hard work and dedication to providing a quality breakfast to those that attend. Congratulations Jerry and thank you for being a shining example to your brother Knights.

AUGUST

Building the Domestic Church

Because no one should be isolated, remember that our parish and communities are a larger family in which we must share our love and service.

As faithful Catholics, we have an obligation to be good citizens in our larger communities. Our responsibility to serve others comes from the Lord, who called us to love our neighbor. When we follow this call, our society becomes a better place as a result of our service and concern for our neighbors.

We must show the world that it is love that motivates us to help and protect people in need.

Meditation

From St. John Paul II's Familiaris Consortio.

Among the fundamental tasks of the Christian family is its ecclesial task: the family is placed at the service of the building up of the Kingdom of God in history by participating in the life and mission of the Church. ... It is, above all, the Church as Mother that gives birth to, educates and builds up the Christian family, by putting into effect in its regard the saving mission which she has received from her Lord. By proclaiming the word of God, the Church reveals to the Christian family its true identity, what it is and should be according to the Lord's plan; by celebrating the sacraments, the Church enriches and strengthens the Christian family with the grace of Christ for its sanctification to the glory of the Father; by the continuous proclamation of the new commandment of love, the Church encourages and guides the Christian family to the service of love, so that it may imitate and relive the same self-giving and sacrificial love that the Lord Jesus has for the entire human race.

1. How has the parish enriched our family through its activities, various services and the great gifts of the sacraments?
2. How can our family take advantage of what is offered in the Church, opening ourselves more fully to the graces it provides?
3. How can our family become more involved in the parish, as a way of returning a small amount of love to these parishes that bring us so much grace through the sacraments?

Family Project

Discuss with your family the importance of Christ's words: "For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Mt 18:20). As a family, reach out and invite another family member or someone who may be alone to join your family for Mass, a social event or another activity.

Scripture Reading of the Month

Psalm 8: 2-6, 10

A praise to the Divine Majesty reflected in each human person

O LORD, our LORD,
how awesome is your name through all the earth!
I will sing of your majesty above the heavens
with the mouths of babes and infants.
You have established a bulwark against your foes,
to silence enemy and avenger.
When I see your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and stars that you set in place —
What is man that you are mindful of him,
and a son of man that you care for him?
Yet you have made him little less than a god,
crowned him with glory and honor.
O LORD, our LORD,
how awesome is your name through all the earth!

St. Augustine's Prayer for the Sick and Distressed

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And for all your love's sake. Amen.
