As 2014 comes to a close and we usher in a new year we approach the mid-year point of the Knights of Columbus. I want to recap and highlight some of the great programs and events we have done in the first six months of our fiscal year. We cooked for Backyard Theology, held Steak and Stogies events, welcomed Eric Vegil to the deaconate with a reception after his ordination, held a Marriage Vow Renewal Mass with a BBQ, attended and cooked for the parish fair, held corporate communions, held a tootsie roll drives, served breakfast, served dinner for the craft sale, contributed to coats for kids, held Trick or Treat Street just to name a few. I am very proud of what we have done the first half of the year and look forward to the second half of the year. Thanks for all that you do.

Merry Christmas!

From The Chaplain

Brother Knights,

Advent begins the Church's liturgical year. The word derives from Latin "ad-venire" which means "to come to." We embrace the day when "The Word became flesh, and dwelt among us." and we look toward that day when He is "to come to" us again. None of this denies the ever present fact that Jesus the Christ is always with us now; we wait for Him to come again in all His glory. This holy season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to that great event, until then, to focus our thoughts and hearts toward this anniversary of the Nativity of our Lord.

You know one of my favorite sayings, "If you always do what you always did, you'll always get what you always got." Advent and our preparation of Christmas causes that to echo in my heart. It is a good thing to have traditions in families for these great days. Traditions remind us of days and events of yesteryear. In the remembering, as well as in the current moment, do we focus on that which is to come? It is the Christ whom we await. It is His coming for which we long. But, has this past year been any different than any other year? Have our hearts, souls and minds been turned any closer to the Lord? Is our spiritual life any better than it has been heretofore? If not, we have what we've always got.

This year, make a resolution to make a change. Make this Advent a time of renewal and strengthening of your spiritual life so that through the year to come you'll have a new/fresh way of embracing your faith. Catch the fire of His love that is so obvious in this season and make it glow throughout the year.

Fr. Bob Fisher

Chaplain

Knight of the Month

Brother Cody Drake has been chosen as Knight of the Month for November. Cody has been an active in the council since he became a knight a couple years ago after he turned 18. Cody is the council's youngest Knight and one of the most active. Cody contributes to our council programs and events on a regular basis and attends our meetings when his busy class and work schedule permits.

FAMILY OF THE MONTH

The Family of Brother Patrick Wiest has been chosen as Family of the Month for November. At the time of this publishing I had not received the application details. Please check back for the qualifying details.

St. Augustine's Prayer for the Sick and Distressed

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And for all your love's sake. Amen.

Please pray for our beloved departed:

Marilyn Knauber

Mel White

May all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Alter and Rosary Bake and Craft Sale

The Alter and Rosary would like to thank the council for serving dinner and breakfast after all the Masses during their craft and bake sale. Thanks again
