Grand Knights Report

Brothers,

As this is my last Grand Knights report for the newsletter I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for letting me lead this council for the last two years. It has been a privilege to serve the Council, Parish and Community.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all our members that have sacrificed much of their time to make this council such a great success. As Members of a great council; you all should be proud of what we do and what we have been able to accomplish.

Of course we could not have accomplished what we did if it was not for my fellow officers that supported me as Grand Knight. I look forward to helping our new Grand Knight continue with the many successes we have achieved.

Again from the bottom of my heart; thanks for all you have done, all you do, and all will continue to do for the Good of the Order, Our Priests, Our Families, Our Parish, Our Community and most of all for Our Fellow Brothers.

VIVAT JESUS!

From The Chaplain

Excerpt from:

ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

5/1/2016

Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori

THE HOLY FAMILY TEACHES US A BALANCED APPROACH TO WORK BASED ON SELF-GIVING LOVE AND OUR CALL TO HOLINESS

AN EXPRESSION OF LOVE

...reflecting on St. Joseph's role as protector of the Holy Family, Pope Francis challenged us to be protectors of our own families, which "means caring for one another in our families: husbands and wives first protect one another, and then as parents, they care for their children; and children, in time, protect their parents. It means building sincere friendships in which we protect one another in trust, respect and goodness."

What a different way to approach our daily work! In the family, work must become part of that continual and mutual self-gift of spouses for their own sake and for the sake of their children. It's not just about getting ahead, not just about survival, but rather an expression of love, care, protection and gratitude to God. Ultimately, our daily work must be directed toward holiness and salvation.

Chaplain

Because families play an important role in the new evangelization, we want to share our faith with other families.

Everyone — no matter their role or station in life — is called to holiness. As the saints have shown so well throughout history, holiness in life leads inevitably to witness in our daily lives. This witness is the primary way to evangelize in our time. It is through living our lives as Catholic families, devoted to our faith, to each other and to helping those in need, that we best evangelize in a world that so often seems reluctant to hear this good news.

Meditation

From an address of Pope Benedict XVI to the Pontifical Council for the Family.

The new evangelization depends largely on the domestic church. ... The family is indeed the way of the Church because it is the “human space” of our encounter with Christ. Spouses “not only receive the love of Christ and become a saved community, but they are also called upon to communicate Christ’s love to their brethren, thus becoming a saving community.” The family founded on the sacrament of marriage is a particular realization of the Church ... called to welcome, radiate and show the world the love and presence of Christ.

The reception and transmission of divine love are realized in the mutual commitment of the spouses, in generous and responsible procreation, in the care and education of children, work and social relationships, with attention to the needy, in participation in church activities, in commitment to civil society. The Christian Family to the extent it succeeds in living love as communion and service as a reciprocal gift open to all, as a journey of permanent conversion supported by the grace of God, reflects the splendor of Christ in the world and the beauty of the divine Trinity.

1. How can our family better communicate Christ’s presence to others in word and action, and thereby become a “saving community” that shares the love of Christ?
2. Remembering that the “new evangelization” is an evangelization which is not new in content but “new in ardor, methods and expression,” what are some ways our family can “evangelize,” and what truths might we express?
3. Why is family such an effective voice for things that matter?

Because families play an important role in the new evangelization, we want to share our faith with other families.

Everyone — no matter their role or station in life — is called to holiness. As the saints have shown so well throughout history, holiness in life leads inevitably to witness in our daily lives. This witness is the primary way to evangelize in our time. It is through living our lives as Catholic families, devoted to our faith, to each other and to helping those in need, that we best evangelize in a world that so often seems reluctant to hear this good news.

Family Project

Write down ideas for small sacrifices/offerings on individual pieces of paper. Place these in a small bowl. Every day, have each member of the family randomly select one piece of paper to offer the sacrifice listed for the intentions of a relative or friend. At the end of the month, each family member might send a note to the person for whom they made the offering, telling him or her about their prayers and sacrifices.

Scripture Reading of the Month

Psalm 148: 1-5, 11-13

A song of praise to the Lord

Praise the LORD from the heavens;
praise him in the heights.
Praise him, all you his angels;
give praise, all you his hosts.
Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all shining stars.
Praise him, highest heavens,
you waters above the heavens.

Let them all praise the LORD’s name;
for he commanded and they were created,
Kings of the earth and all peoples,
princes and all who govern on earth;
Young men and women too,
old and young alike.
Let them all praise the LORD’s name, for his name alone is exalted, His majesty above earth and heaven

St. Augustine's Prayer for the Sick and Distressed

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And for all your love's sake. Amen.

Please pray for our beloved departed:

Brother Todd Andres
Betty Buchaman
Marilyn Rickert
Marge Sauer

May all the faithful departed rest in peace.
