Grand Knights Report

September was a pretty light month for council activities; so a little break for everyone. Thanks to the breakfast crew for putting together a great breakfast and serving after all 3 Sunday Masses. Now on to October. On the 11th there will be a Rosary at the corner of Belleview and Broadway for Our Lady of Fatima at noon. This month we will be having our tootsie roll drive for people with intellectual disabilities. Please see the dates on the council calendar as we are still looking for volunteer help to fill the empty slots. The sign-up sheet is on PB Works. We will also have a membership drive in conjunction with our October 19th breakfast and after Masses on the 18th and 19th. Please remember to wear you council nametag to Mass every Sunday and to all council events. The 30th is Trick or Treat Street with the Youth Group so come and hand out some candy. We also have a Steak and Stogies night tentatively planned for Wednesday the 29th if there is any interest in that. Don't forget to Sell, Sell, Sell, those Christmas Trees and Wreaths. Please come and participate in your council meetings and programs. Membership drives Programs and Programs drive Membership. Come get involved. We need your help.

From The Chaplain

Please pray for Father Bob and our fellow parishioners as they travel to the Holy Land. In the absence of Fathers Column, here is an excerpt from an article about The Pope's Homily on October 2nd, 2014. Written by the Catholic News Agency.

Vatican City, Oct 2, 2014 / 07:37 am
(CNA/EWTN News)- In his homily for the Feast of Holy Guardian Angels, Pope Francis told those gathered for daily Mass to be like children who pay attention to their "traveling companion."

The doctrine of the angels, the Holy Father stressed, is not imaginary, but "reality." Citing what Jesus has said, "I send an angel before you to protect you, to accompany you along the path, so that you do not make mistakes!"

According to the tradition of the Church, each of us has a guardian angel who protects us and helps make us aware of things, the Pope said at the Santa Marta residence Oct. 2. Often times, we have the feeling that "I should do this, this is not right, be careful." This, he said, "is the voice of" our guardian angel: our "traveling companion."

Our guardian angel will "carry us" throughout our entire life. For this reason, he said we should "listen to his voice, don't rebel against it." We all have this tendency toward rebellion and the will for independence, the Holy Father continued. "It is pride," the same which "our father Adam had in the earthly Paradise."

"Do not rebel: follow his advice."

"No one walks alone and none of us can think that he is alone," because "this companion" is always with us.

Not listening to our guardian angel's advice, the Pope said, is like telling him to go away. "It is dangerous to chase away our traveling companion," he said, "because no man, no woman can advise themselves. I can give advice to another, but I cannot give advice to myself."

"The Holy Spirit advises me, the angel who advises me. This is why we need him.

Prayerfully,

Fr. Bob Fisher

Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ. Rest your weary ones. Bless your dying ones. Soothe your suffering ones. Pity your afflicted ones. Shield your joyous ones. And for all your love's sake. Amen.

Please pray for our beloved departed:
